RPIA Recognizes District 1 Manager Stephanie Young

On July 26, the Norwest Gallery of Art was packed with neighborhood leaders and well-wishers, as we all gathered to honor the hard work and dedicated service of District 1 Manager Stephanie Young, as she leaves that position to transition to a new position as Executive Director of the Community Education Commission. This new non-profit created by Detroit Mayor Mike Duggan will work to break down barriers that prevent families and children from accessing quality schools in Detroit.

RPIA is proud to honor Stephanie for the amazing work she has done for our neighborhood! And we are delighted to welcome our new District 1 Manager Latrice McLendon and our new District 1 Deputy Manager Kya Robertson!

The Rosedale Park Improvement Association honors Stephanie Young for her hard work and dedicated service as District 1 Manager.

HELP WANTED: RP NEWS Circulation Manager

If you have about 5 hours to spare every two months and want to help our neighborhood, please volunteer to help distribute the ROSEDALE PARK NEWS. Counting, labeling, packing bundles and delivering bundles to block captains are all part of the job description. Please contact Pam Weinstein at weinstein148@ameritech.net or call 313-231-2244.

City to Plant 10,000 Trees

Want a Tree on your Berm?

Mayor Duggan’s 10,000 UP Tree Initiative will plant 10,000 residential trees in front of residential homes between the street and the sidewalk. For 2018, their Fall planting will begin in September and conclude in November. All plantings will be conducted by a City of Detroit contractor. The City will not utilize volunteers for this initiative.

If you would like a new tree planted in front of your home, send your name, address, and phone number ASAP to Pam Weinstein at weinstein148@ameritech.net or call 313-231-2244.
